

Pg. 1 of 1
Law Office of Todd S. Cushner & Associates, P. C.

Todd S. Cushner, Esq.
Deborah Turofsky*
Dana Brescia, of counsel

Admitted in NY & NJ
*Admitted in NY

November 7, 2023

Via ECF

Hon. Sean H. Lane
300 Quarropas Street
White Plains, NY 10601

RE: Jaana Colangelo
Case No. 23-22355

Dear Judge Lane,

I'm writing in response to Ms. Colangelo's letter dated November 3. Rest assured that I'm doing everything I can to help Ms. Colangelo, to date I have reviewed her state case docket of over 1500 pages. I have also reviewed Ms. Colangelo's document request from opposing counsel; Ms. Colangelo advised me from the beginning that she would be paying me for the adversary case, which is not a base service in my retainer, from a third party relative. She is telling me this for over three months and I have pushed off her 2004 exam to provide her additional time for the retrieval of documents. At no time did I delay the process or tell her I would not represent her if she didn't pay me.

With respect to Ms. Colangelo's desire to sell her house; I remind Your Honor that this was a Chapter 7 case, and at no time did Trustee Howard Magaliff abandon this property. As such I withdrew my motion. Additionally, her statement that real estate attorney Joseph Hladki failed to communicate with me, is an abject falsehood as Mr. Hladki and I maintain a personal relationship and speak to each other on a regular basis. He would never, ever, accuse me of the disparaging things accused by Ms. Colangelo.

This letter came as a complete surprise to me, with no notice from Ms. Colangelo, that she had any issue with me, or my services. I have advised her that I will be making a motion, forth with, to be relieved as counsel in this matter. It is my hope that this letter resolves any issues regarding this case and my integrity.

Respectfully yours,